Pioneer Projects is a Creative Community Arts organisation that delivers impactful creative and wellbeing focused activity across Craven, empowering people to achieve their goals, especially those vulnerable to poor mental health.

We are looking for a two Keyworkers who understand the power of creativity to unlock people's potential, can support them to use it as a springboard into community activity, volunteering, learning or paid employment, and can help develop the physical and digital networks that make these progressions possible.

Responsible to the Creative & Wellbeing Projects Manager and working alongside our creative lead artists, you will need to be empathetic, confident, organised, creatively minded and IT literate.
